

“How can I serve your needs surrounding farmland?” asks Lynn. She understands “There is a maze of decisions to make when owning, buying or selling property. Let’s think about what is in your best interest and how to maximize your investment.”

Lynn was raised with vice-grips on her hip caring for Holstein cattle between Gower and Plattsburg, MO. While earning her degree in Animal Science at K-State, she set out to understand the dairy industry. This led to serving as a Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar and earning a Master’s in Farm Management Consultancy in New Zealand. Since 2006, Lynn has been serving farm families in Northeast Kansas on topics surrounding farm financial management. Lynn is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and strives to be an independent mind that understands challenges and simplifies decision making.

She appreciates the benefits of small town life living in Sabetha, KS with her husband, Travis, and young daughter. Blessed with a slew of nieces and nephews, they enjoy family time. She strives to follow Jesus and enjoys their church family. Lynn serves on two boards, Northeast Kansas Economic Facilitation and Friends of the Mary Cotton Library.
